

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

CIRIEC-España, revista de economía pública, social y cooperativa is a fourmonthly Latin-American scientific review of interdisciplinary nature on plural economy. Its research field ranges over enterprises and entities which aim is to serve to the general benefit and, in particular, social economy -mostly composed of co-operatives, labour societies, mutual saving banks, foundations and associations- and public economy, giving priority in this case to labor, social cohesion and regional development policies.

The Editing Board of the review will examine all articles related to public or social economy (third sector), specially those related to co-operatives, mutual benefit societies and nonprofit organizations, which are submitted to be published. All articles submitted must be unpublished and not submitted to any other source for its publication. It is supposed that authors have given their consent to publish the article in this review.

Papers will be evaluated by external referees. The articles' scientific level and their contribution to the information exchange between the research field and that of those working on Public Administration and on social economy (third sector) will be some of the selective criteria. Articles may be accepted, revised to a different degree or refused. The authors of the articles accepted must renounce to the copyright of its Spanish version and authorize the review to publish their articles on its Web page as well as reproduced them in different scientific data base, as established by law.

Articles must be sent in electronic format to ammb@uv.es.

Postal mail: CIRIEC-España, Revista de Economía Pública, Social y Cooperativa.
